

THE HONG KONG COLLEGE OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS

Answers January / 2007

SIMPLE COMPLETION

1. Which of the following is FALSE regarding breast cancer in Hong Kong?

- A. Onset before age 25 is uncommon.
- B. It is the third most common cause of death for females.
- C. Mortality rate has doubled over the past ten years.
- D. Effective breast screening can reduce mortality.
- E. First peak is 40-50.

Answer : C

2. Which of the following is NOT a cause of medication non-adherence for depression treatment?

- A. Stigmatization.
- B. Too frequent follow-ups.
- C. Concern of drug-herb interaction.
- D. Lack of insurance coverage.
- E. Lack of support from family.

Answer : B

3. Regarding breast screening, which of the following is FALSE?

- A. Breast cancer is usually radio-dense in mammography.
- B. MRI is helpful in identifying occult breast tumours presenting with a positive axillary lymph node.
- C. Clinical breast examination is best done one week after the onset of their last menstruation.
- D. Ultrasound is most accurate in detecting microcalcifications.
- E. Value of breast self-examination is still unproven.

Answer : D

4. Which of the following is TRUE regarding management of salivary gland swellings?

- A. Torus palatini are malignant swellings.
- B. When due to stones, the sub-lingual glands are the most frequently involved.
- C. Ranula occurs in the roof of the mouth.
- D. An incisional biopsy is the golden rule for salivary gland swellings presenting as neck masses.
- E. Parotid gland swellings can be very sizeable.

Answer : E